Your Adventure

On March 24th 2008, you'll embark on a journey with a group of people from all around the world.

You will fly, drive and stagger to 11 of the best party destinations on the planet, and hammer your way through over 60 of the finest pubs on earth.

From the world's longest bar in Düsseldorf, Germany, to the party capital of Prague, Czech Republic... through the best rock bar on the planet in Phuket, Thailand, to New Zealand's drinking heaven of Queenstown...

...this is the adventure of your lifetime!

An orgy of partying, nightlife and pub crawling awaits you as you board your plane at London's Heathrow airport.

And absolutely no experience will ever come close to what's in store for you, as you travel the world as one of the hardest pubcrawlers on earth – knowing that nobody has ever walked these steps before you, and you're truly making history.

Yes, you will officially be amongst the toughest 25 people on earth, and you'll even get a certificate to prove it. You'll be able to boast to friend that you were one of the very first people to complete (and survive) the first ever round-the-world pub crawl.

Your thirst will be forever quenched as you make friends from all over the world, and conquer some of the coolest, most outrageous drinking establishments on the planet.

So are you ready to make history?

Your Pub Crawl Destinations

There are a lot of them... and these are just some of the highlights at each of your pub crawl stops!

London, United Kingdom

It is here that you will gather for departure on the adventure of your lifetime with the hardest, toughest and best pub crawlers ever assembled. You will be one of just 25 people to embark on this once-in-a-lifetime journey – and nobody has ever taken these brave steps before you!

Düsseldorf, Germany

Home of the “World’s Longest Bar”, Düsseldorf boasts over 360 pubs within its tiny old town square. It’s an end-to-end orgy of pub crawling heaven, with hundreds of bars squeezed into a handful of streets, all within staggering distance of each other. It’s a smorgasbord of partying!

Prague, Czech Republic

The beer capital of the world, Prague promises you the ultimate in nightlife entertainment with its massive range of pubs, bars and clubs catering for every taste. Our group will attempt to beat some records at the Beer Factory, a unique bar offering its drinkers their own pouring taps on every table – with a huge TV screen projecting each table’s performance from hardest to weakest! Traditional Czech pubs await you on the second night.

Maria Alm, Austria

Alpine drinking at its finest! This hidden gem is nestled into the heart of the alps, and half a dozen truly unique pubs will be ready for action when you arrive – from the legendary Dengl Alm, where you can order any drink by the meter (yes, a 1-meter rack with 10 full glasses!), to the tiny Alm Hütten barely the size of your standard Hotel Room where they hammer out the music and the drinks all night long. You’ll be partying with the locals in true Austrian style – hard!

Munich, Germany

Its host to the world’s largest organised drinking event – Oktoberfest. Bust just because you’re there in March, doesn’t mean the party isn’t on – Munich has some of the finest pubs and bars on earth, and the locals simply ooze festivity. Your time here will be spent checking out the best sights the city has to offer – the inside of its pubs and bars.

Reykjavík, Iceland

Get ready for an amazing pub crawl experience with some of the most beautiful-looking people on the planet... this place is absolute heaven. Considered the new party capital, Reykjavík has simply spectacular nightlife! The city never really sleeps, and only the weak will call an early night. The party rarely starts until midnight... and ends when the boring sight-seeing tourists usually awake for breakfast.

Phuket, Thailand

Only one word describes Phuket – hard. The reason? Rock City, the hardest rocking pub on the planet. Absolutely no bar anywhere else can compare in pure power factor, and you'll be treated like a VIP with special entry and exclusive live cover bands that hammer out versions of Thunderstruck and Whiskey in the Jar so real, you'd swear it was AC/DC and Metallica up on stage.

And since you're here for 3 nights, you'll also be nailing drinks at the Tiger Bar, a place that's guaranteed to blow your mind away, and some of the hundreds of smaller bars offering an almost unlimited choice of entertainment within walking distance of your Hotel room.

This is THE most hammertime pub crawling you will ever do in your entire life.

Had enough? Then hard'n up, because you're going to:

Auckland, New Zealand

Well it's on the way to Queenstown, our real destination in New Zealand. A night that many of your drinking colleagues will surely use to recuperate and find their bearings after all they've been through in the last few weeks. But for the hardest, we're putting on an organised pub crawl with one of the local party bus operators, so get ready for more.

Queenstown, New Zealand

Over 60 pubs and bars are dotted throughout Queenstown, the party capital of the southern hemisphere. The highlight here will be a night at Winnie's Bar, where the retractable roof promise to cool down all the hot bodies crammed into this amazing pub. You'll be drinking under the southern stars (which we're sure you'll be seeing double) with VIP entry, special drink discounts and non-stop party music all night long. The next night you'll be starting off at the Mini Bar, possibly the world's smallest bar... but with over 100 different beers and a huge variety of spirits on offer, you won't be going dry.

Honolulu, Hawaii

Say Aloha to some great Waikiki booze cruises, as you experience some great island nightlife in one of the most famous places on earth. With its spectacular beaches, you'll be downing a drink or 10 under the sunset before heading out to the finest pubs and bars in town – 4 hard nights in a row!

Cancun, Mexico

Well there's a reason millions of people visit Cancun every year to party. The nightlife here is just wild! Made famous by the annual springbreak pilgrimage, you'll be piping down Tequilas and Mexican beer at some truly legendary drinking spots.

Cancun is the last stop before heading back to London, and after 3 nights of partying you can now lay claim to perhaps the greatest feat ever accomplished: completing a round-the-world pub crawl.

You are now amongst the toughest and hardest 25 people on earth.
