Australian Pub Crawl To Set World Record!

On Sunday 10th June, QLD town of Maryborough will host the biggest pub crawl on earth – with over 3,500 people expected to turn up and make their way into the history books.

And Aussie pub-crawl tour operator, Thirsty Swagman, still has a few seats left on their all-out 4-day pub crawl tour!

“This is a tour like no other, and promises to be an absolute hammering” says Andrew Dalton, Marketing Manager at Thirsty Swagman

“It’s 4 days and 3 nights of pure party, record-breaking heaven” he says

Departing Brisbane on June 9th, their tour includes not only the world record pub crawl, but also a “not so dry-run” the night before, and a visit to Bundaberg after the record attempt.

“Even our accommodation is right in the middle of town, so you won’t have to stagger far after the pub crawl” says Kenneth Hart, Chief Swagman at the company.

“What sets us apart from any other tour, is that there’s absolutely zero sight-seeing. Every single day and night we’ll spend at the pub” he says.

Tour costs $695 from Brisbane-Maryborough return, and is all-inclusive of entry to pubs and bars, accommodation incl. breakfast and most dinners, and video production of the entire pub crawl. The most rewarding incentive however is a chance to be part of history for eternity.
